

Feast of The Holy Guardian Angels

<https://catholicism.org/the-holy-guardian-angels.html>

The word "angel" comes from "angelos" [ἄγγελος], Greek for The LORD's "messenger" to man. The Archangels serve in command of the angelic host in Heaven before The Throne of The Almighty: "MICHAEL" - מִיכָאֵל - "The Likeness of GOD;" "GABRIEL" - גַּבְרִיאֵל - "The Strength of GOD;" "RAPHAEL" - רַפָּאֵל - "The Healing of GOD;" "URIEL" - אֲוִרְיָאֵל - "The Light of GOD."

From the lower ranks of His angelic armies in Heaven, The LORD assigns a guardian angel to every human person, to guide, protect and call towards eternal life.

"Our Heavenly Father shows His Love for us by taking care of us as we make our way here below. In addition to all that we receive through The Ministry of The Church, we enjoy the help of [Holy Mary and] the Saints, those holy men and women who have preceded us, in Heaven.

Still more, He also gives each person one of His holy angels to be a spiritual companion and guide. This angel is charged by GOD to keep us safe from harm and give us help and encouragement in pleasing GOD and gaining eternal reward.

We call upon our guardian angels with devotion and gratitude, so that one day, we may "look upon the face of The Heavenly Father" with them [MATTHEW 18:10]." *

Angels of The LORD, bless The LORD, praise and exalt Him above all for ever.*

"O GOD, Who in Your unfathomable Providence are pleased to send Your holy Angels to guard us, hear our supplication as we cry to You, that we may always be defended by their protection and rejoice eternally in their company.

Through our Lord JESUS CHRIST, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in The Unity of The HOLY SPIRIT, GOD, for ever and ever." *

AMEN

"The angels are our great allies. We owe them a great debt and it is a mistake to mention them as rarely as we do. Every one of us has a guardian angel, most faithful of friends, twenty-four hours a day, from conception to death. He unceasingly protects us, body and soul, while we for the most part never think about him.

We also know that each nation has its particular guardian angel..., every community and family. We know that the angels are a multitude, and their desire to help us is much greater than Satan's desire to destroy us.

Sacred Scripture often tells us about the missions that GOD entrusted to His angels. We know the name of the prince of the angels, Saint Michael. There is a hierarchy among the angels based on Love, which is guided by The Divine Intellect "in Whose Will we find our peace," as Dante says.

We also know the names of two other archangels: Gabriel and Raphael. The Apocrypha add a fourth name, Uriel. Sacred Scripture divides the angels into nine choirs: dominions, powers, thrones, principalities, virtues, angels, archangels, cherubim and seraphim.

The believer who lives in The Presence of The Trinity and is certain of Its Life within himself knows that he also has a Mother [Holy Mary], GOD's Own Mother, Who ceaselessly helps him. He knows that he can always count on the help of [Holy Mary,] the angels and the Saints; therefore, how can he feel alone, abandoned or oppressed by evil? In the life of the believer there is pain, because it is The Way of The Cross that saves us, but there is no room for sadness. He who believes is always ready to give witness to those who ask him, about The Hope that sustains him (I PETER 3:15).

It is also clear that the believer must be faithful to GOD and must fear sin. This is the basis of our strength, as Saint John tells us: "We know that anyone born of GOD does not sin, but he who was born of GOD keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him (I JOHN 5:18).

If sometimes our weakness leads us to fall, we must immediately [call upon GOD's Grace, and] pick ourselves up with That Great Gift of GOD's Mercy: repentance and confession." *

Holy guardian angels of GOD, pray for us, and guide us in The Way of Cross unto eternal life into The Church Triumphant Above! AMEN.
