

analysis, "The Upside-Down Church: Pope Francis Can't Rest Until All Catholics Are Modernists." George Neumayr.
The American Spectator. 7/25/2021 AD

https://spectator.org/latin-mass-pope-francis-upside-down-church/?fbclid=IwAR1jcWQJ1wHtxSrIFu\_RPfjPdG77387G2H1JtnY0t6sEbQurRegD1F7mQgg

In Jorge Bergoglio – “Pope Francis” - El Papa Enemigo, is not at that gates, but within the gates of The Church, attacking & tearing down The Kingdom of GOD on earth from the inside, so that he can remake Her into a new modernist pseudo-spiritual ape of the world:

"In the past, orthodox Catholics defended the Pope from enemies of the faith. Now they must defend the faith from a Pope who has shown himself repeatedly to be their enemy." - George Neumayr.

body of article:

"Pope Francis has often compared The Catholic Church to a “field hospital.” It is an odd analogy in his case, given his penchant for quackery and malpractice. The healthiest patients at his field hospital have their limbs hacked off while the sickest ones receive increased dosages of a medicine that doesn’t work.

The pope's conception of health in The Body of CHRIST is the opposite of his predecessors. They saw the absence of orthodoxy as a cancer in The Church, whereas Pope Francis sees the persistent presence of orthodoxy as the poison.

According to this twisted view, the crisis in The Church derives not from the modernist heresy but from the unwillingness of Catholics to succumb to it. Laboring under this view, he has devoted much of his pontificate to undoing the post-Vatican II conservative retrenchment of Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI....

The Church's reluctance to embrace "modern culture," he has implicitly criticized those predecessors. Where they viewed the liberal "spirit" of Vatican II with concern, he welcomed it...

The pope embodies the very division that he claims to deplore. He is dividing Catholics at the deepest possible level — from Catholic Tradition itself.

The pope's recent order curtailing the traditional Latin Mass is central to that ambition. He can't rest until all Catholics have submitted to his modernism. In the past, popes instituted oaths against modern errors. This pope is eager to impose an oath in favor of them.

In urging the bishops to marginalize the traditional Latin Mass, the pope reveals the depth of his contempt for Catholic tradition and his desire to cement in place a modernist redefinition of Catholicism...

His decree against the traditional Latin Mass is designed to finish off the pre-conciliar Church. It severs any connection between the post-Vatican II Church and the pre-Vatican II Church, thereby allowing the modernists to monopolize the direction of the Church.

In order to take Catholicism out of Catholicism and turn it into an unspiritual and political quasi-religion, the modernists can't abide any competition from the orthodox. Because the traditional Latin Mass movement was growing, particularly among young people and young priests, the pope had to kill it.

The onerous provisions in the decree will first ghettoize the old Mass, then snuff it out. The Church, already suffering from a vocations crisis, will lose even more vocations, as the decree in effect tells tradition-minded young men that the price of entry into the priesthood now is total submission to the pope's modernism...

By "unity," the pope means universal acceptance of that project. He is demanding that all Catholics view uncritically changes that have obviously weakened the faith. If they don't, they are "divisive."

The pope, of course, embodies the very division that he claims to deplore. He is dividing Catholics at the deepest possible level — from Catholic tradition itself. A "unity" rooted in heterodoxy is a sham.

As the modernist Church stumbles from scandal to scandal, he dares to hold it up as the model of Catholicism to which all must aspire.

His latest act of ecclesiastical tyranny is nothing more than an attempt to extract from the most faithful Catholics a pledge of allegiance to that crumbling Church...

In the past, orthodox Catholics defended the pope from enemies of the faith. Now they must defend the faith from a pope who has shown himself repeatedly to be their enemy."

PSALM 74:18-23

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nFyX5Mn4fgM&list=RDJKN8vO6EqWw&index=4>

King JESUS CHRIST, deliver Thy Church from evil men who destroy Her!
18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed Thy Name.

19 O deliver not the soul of Thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of Thy poor for ever.

20 Have respect unto The Covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise Thy Name.

22 Arise, O GOD, plead Thine Own Cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth Thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of Thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against Thee increaseth