Holy Mary, "The Glowing Dawn" of GOD
by Father Adam of Perseigne, Abbot (died c 1221 AD)

"How happy is She Who is both Mother and Spouse of GOD, the gate of Heaven, the loveliness of Paradise, Lady of Angels, Queen of the Universe, joy of the Saints, Advocate of believers, courage of those who fight, the recaller of those who wander, medicine of the penitent.

O sure salvation! Short path to life! Sole hope of pardon, Sweetness unique. You, Lady, are my all. In Your hands has been stored for me The Fullness of all Good [our Redeemer JESUS CHRIST]. With You have been hidden the unfailing Treasures of Truth and Grace, of Peace and Pity, of Salvation and Wisdom, of Glory and of Honor.

You are my anchor amid the billows, port in shipwreck, support in tribulation, comfort in grief. You are, for those who are Yours, aid in oppression, help in time of crisis, temperance in prosperity, joy in time of waiting, refreshment in toil.

Whatsoever I can stammer in Your praise is less than Your praise, for You are worthy of all praise. Yet am I bound to praise You. If I speak with the tongue of men and of angels when I have poured out my whole self, it will be too little.

I have recourse rather to that praise of You which is sung thus in the Song of Love:

SONG OF SOLOMON 6:10

Who is She Who goes forth as the rising dawn, beautiful as the moon, glorious as the sun, terrible as an army in array?

With these words, briefly and simply, truthfully and loftily, is expressed the fourfold praise of Your Glory. For when You are born, You arise like the glowing dawn. Truly Your rising took the office of dawn for in it the day of Grace began and ignorance was ended." *

ROMANS 8:28-30

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love GOD, to them who are the called according to His purpose.

29 For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to The Image of His Son, that He might be The Firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom He did predestinate, them He also called: and whom He called, them He also justified: and whom He justified, them He also glorified.
